

God's Law ALWAYS HAS & ALWAYS WILL Be in Effect

GodsLawToday.com

Most people think that God's law was not in existence prior to the time of Moses at Mount Sinai. The fact is, however, that God's law was in existence (and in effect) long before that time!

As this article will prove, it has been in effect since the time of Adam... and even prior to Adam. The truth is that God's law always has—and always will—be in effect!

Now, the law that is herein being referred to, is God's spiritual law... the law summarized by the Ten Commandments. It's the law which tells us how to live. So, this is the law which we are examining today. Not the Old Testament laws of rituals and animal sacrifice—nor the hundreds of detailed and burdensome laws made by humans (under the name of Judaism), which were added to God's spiritual law. Instead, today we are examining God's spiritual law—the law summarized by the Ten Commandments.

The Nature of God's Law

Before we look at the Biblical proof that God's law was in effect prior to Moses (prior to Mount Sinai), let's first consider the nature of God's law. Once we understand the nature of God's spiritual law, then it makes perfect sense that the law has always been in effect!

The Bible states that “God is love” (I John 4:8). “Love” is the way that God lives... and it is the way He commands us to live. Yet, “love” is not left to the interpretation of each human being. Only God, in His supreme wisdom, knows the way of life which leads to lasting peace and happiness (Isa. 55: 8-9; Prov. 3:5; 14:12).

The Bible is God's revelation of the way of life which He lives... which is the way that He likewise commands us to live. And, in telling us how to live, God gives us laws which He commands us to live by. Rom. 13:10 says that love fulfills God's law. Why does love fulfill the law? Because God's spiritual law is a law OF love. It's a law which reveals how to express true, Godly love. Christ said that “All the law” hangs on the two great commandments to love God and to love fellowman (Matt. 22: 36-40). The first four of the Ten Commandments show the basics of how to love God, and the last six show the basics of how to love fellowman. The Ten Commandments are further magnified throughout the Bible, especially in the New Testament.

God's love runs down the channel or riverbed of God's Ten Commandments. “For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments” (I John 5:3). Likewise, in II John 6, John explained that “This is love, that we walk according to His commandments.” God's law is the very reflection of God's character! So, it makes perfect sense that God's spiritual law—His law of love, summarized by the Ten Commandments—would have always been in effect!

Biblical Proof

Let's now look at the Biblical evidence that God's law was in existence prior to Mt. Sinai.

Hundreds of years prior to the Ten Commandments being given at Mt. Sinai, God said this about His servant Abraham: "Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws"! (Gen. 26:5).

Furthermore, consider this. The Ten Commandments were given in Exodus 20. So let's now look prior to that time, in Exodus 16. Here, weeks before the Ten Commandments were given at Mt. Sinai, we read where God said this: "How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?" (verse 28).

Likewise, in Exodus 18, Moses said that when the people came to him with a problem, Moses made known to them "the statutes of God and His laws" (verse 16). Again, that was prior to the giving of the Ten Commandments at Sinai!

Now, since God's spiritual law was already in effect, why did He give it at Sinai? (1) The Israelites had been enslaved in Egypt for 400 years and had gotten far away from God, and had even forgotten God's law... especially under the heavy hand of the Egyptians, who enforced worship of pagan gods. (2) Ancient Israel was entering a covenant or agreement with God, whereby they agreed to obey God's law, and God would, in turn, bless them with physical blessings.

In Effect Since Adam

We will now see that God's spiritual law was in effect all the way back to the time of the first man, Adam. But, first, let's answer the question "what exactly is sin?" In I John 3:4 we're clearly told the definition of sin: "...sin is the transgression of the law" (KJV). That is, "sin" is the transgression of God's spiritual law. So, whenever the Bible says that someone "sinned," it is saying that the person transgressed God's spiritual law.

Now, did Adam sin? Rom. 5:12 says that "through one man sin entered the world." So, Adam did sin—which means he transgressed God's law. Therefore, God's law was in effect at the time of Adam!

In Gen. 4: 6-9, we see that Cain likewise sinned (transgressed God's law), and that two of his "sins" (verses 8-9) were murder and lying... which are two of the Ten Commandments.

"Adultery," another of the Ten Commandments, is shown to have been a "sin" long before the time of Mt. Sinai. When tempted to commit adultery, Joseph said, "...How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" (Gen. 39: 7-9).

Many other such examples can be found in the Bible where various points of the Ten Commandments were considered "sin" prior to the time of Sinai.

Furthermore, God's word tells us that "where there is no law, there is no transgression" (Rom. 4:15). Yet, the Bible tells of many transgressions prior to the time of Sinai. We've just examined several such instances. In fact, God sent the flood in Noah's time, due to the earthy being full of transgressions! (Gen. 6: 5-7). Likewise, notice I Tim. 2:14—“And, Adam was not deceived, but the woman [Eve] being deceived, fell into transgression [the same Greek word as in Rom. 4:15].”

Yes, “where there is no law, there is no transgression.” And, since there were transgressions prior to Sinai, there was a law in effect prior to Sinai! (Again, “Sin” is the transgression of the law!)

In Effect PRIOR to Adam... and Always!

Finally, let’s consider a couple of other scriptures... one in the book of Ezekiel, and the other in II Peter. In Ezek. 28:16, God told Satan, “...You became filled with violence within, and you sinned; Therefore I cast you as a profane thing out of the mountain of God...” “For if God did not spare the angels who sinned...” (II Peter 2:4).

The two scriptures above speak of “sin” [transgression of the law] by Satan and his angels prior to the time of Adam! Thus, we see that God’s spiritual law existed even prior to the time of Adam!

King David, who was a man after God’s own heart (Acts 13:22), said this: “...all his [God’s] commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever...” (Ps. 111: 7-8, KJV). Yes, God’s law always has, and always will, be in effect! Again, God’s law is the very reflection of His character!

Now, what about after Christ’s future return to this earth? “Now it shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the LORD’s house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; And all nations shall flow to it. Many people shall come and say, ‘Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; He will teach us His ways, and we shall walk in His paths.’ For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” (Isa. 2: 2-3). This scripture, in fact, plainly shows that God’s spiritual law is NOT just for the Jews... but for all nations!

Also, speaking of tomorrow’s world, notice Ezekiel chapter 11: “Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them, and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God ” (verses 19-20).

Yes, God’s spiritual law will still be in effect after Christ’s return, when God’s Kingdom is set up over all the earth. At that time, the glorified saints will rule—by God’s spiritual law—with and under Jesus Christ (Rev. 2: 26-27; 3: 21; 5: 9-10; 20: 4, 6).

Furthermore, God’s Sabbath and annual holy days are a part of God’s spiritual law. And, for proof that those days are to be kept both now and after Christ’s return, see the section of articles on this website regarding the Sabbath and annual holy days.
