

Is it “Pharisaical” to Endorse the Keeping of God’s Law?

GodsLawToday.com

When a Christian endorses the keeping of God’s law, he is oftentimes labeled by critics as being “Pharisaical.” Such critics realize that Christ repeatedly condemned the Pharisees, but they believe that one of the main reasons He condemned them was because they kept God’s law.

Most everyone knows that the Pharisees are criticized in the New Testament for being “hypocrites.” Yet, in addition to their being hypocrites, many people believe that the New Testament also criticizes the Pharisees for keeping the law.

Actually, just the opposite is true! Jesus Christ sternly rebuked the Pharisees for not keeping God’s law! He condemned them for being full of lawlessness! Speaking to the Pharisees, Christ exclaimed, “...you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness” (Matt. 23:28). Christ further rebuked them, on another occasion, by asking, “Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition?” (Matt. 15:3). Christ said that the Pharisees were “full of extortion” (Matt. 23:25)—and we know that “extortion” is contrary to God’s law. He also said that they had the same murderous spirit of their forbearers who had slain God’s prophets: “you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets” (verse 31).

Let’s now ask the question, “What is righteousness?” Scripture shows that the keeping of God’s commandments is righteousness! “...all Your commandments are righteousness” (Ps. 119:172). The same thing is shown in the New Testament, where “the righteous” and “lawlessness” are starkly contrasted with one another (Matt. 13:41-43).

So, with the understanding that the keeping of God’s commandments is “righteousness,” notice what Christ said to those who would be His followers: “...unless your righteousness [your commandment-keeping] exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 5:20).

Pharisaical

Consider now Christ’s condemnation of the Pharisees for their propensity to “...strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!” (Matt. 23:24). Why did Christ characterize them that way? Most people would say it was because of their “law-keeping” that He said that. Yet, we’ve already seen that Christ did not condemn them for law-keeping... and that, instead, He condemned them for not keeping God’s law. So, why did Christ say that they would “strain out a gnat and swallow a camel”?

It was because the Pharisees strove to give the appearance of being righteous through their meticulous observance of many man-made restrictions which had been wrongly added to God’s spiritual law. For example, among these man-made additions, were some 65 do's and don'ts concerning Sabbath-keeping! (See “Is God’s Law ‘Bondage’ and a ‘Heavy Burden’?”)

Notice Christ’s condemnation of the Pharisees regarding these “traditions of the elders” and “commandments of men”:

For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the tradition of the elders. When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches. Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?” He answered and said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: ‘This people honors Me with their lips, But their heart is far from Me. And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’ For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do.” He said to them, “All too well you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’ But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or mother, “Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban”—’ (that is, a gift to God), then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do.” (Mark 7: 3-13).

Yes, by their meticulous keeping of these man-made traditions, and by their hypocritical ways, the Pharisees strove to appear righteous—although they weren’t! “For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God” (John 12:43). “But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, greetings in the market-places, and to be called by men, ‘Rabbi, Rabbi’ (Matt. 23: 5-7). Christ said that is was “for a pretense” that they made long prayers (verse 14).

In His continued rebuke, Christ declared, “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence... For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness” (verses 25-28).

Conclusion

As we have seen, it is totally untrue that the Pharisees were criticized in the New Testament for keeping God’s law. In fact, they were repeatedly criticized by Christ for not keeping God’s law! Thus, it is absolutely erroneous to label someone as “Pharisaical” for endorsing God’s law!
